OCCUPANCY

We recently received your request for an exemption from garbage, recycling and yard waste collection service for an uninhabitable dwelling. In order to qualify for exemption, the dwelling must be permanently uninhabitable, and at least one of the following document(s) must be provided to this office.

QUALIFICATIONS

Check all boxes that apply to your situation. Review and sign applicant's certification, attach documentation and return completed form.

Documentation that the electric (not gas) meters has been removed (not disconnected).
Documentation the water meter(s) has been removed (not disconnected).
Documentation from a State of California – Licensed Professional Engineer that the dwelling is permanently uninhabitable.
Permit or permit application from the City of San Jose Department of Building, Planning & Code Enforcement for demolition (not addition, alteration or repair) or for construction of a new home at the service location. (Telephone: (408) 277-4576).
Notice of condemned status or order to vacate because dwelling is permanently uninhabitable from the City of San Jose Code Enforcement (telephone: (408) 277-4528).

APPLICANT'S CERTIFICATION

The residence named above is permanently uninhabitable. I understand that any garbage, recycling or yard trimming carts at the residence shall be removed. I agree to verify eligibility at the request of the City of San Jose. I will notify City of San Jose – Recycle Plus! Customer Service of any changes that occur relating to the residence. I understand that if the dwelling is rebuilt or the house becomes habitable, I am obligated to resume garbage services under San Jose Municipal Code 9.10.1010. Failure to resume garbage service will not alleviate your financial responsibility. Submission of false documentation will result in financial responsibility for any unbilled service periods. Occupancy of the home, sale, lease or rental of the property, that regular rates become effective from the date of occupancy or close of escrow, whichever occurs first. Under penalties of perjury, I declare that all information on this application is true, correct and complete. I understand the submission of false documentation will result in financial liability for payment of services from date of original approval.
